So much to remember....

So you have decided to stay in the chalet the night of the wedding and maybe get ready in...good choice!

We know that there is so much to remember leading up to your day so thought instead of overwhelming you with information that will be hard to remember, we would share with you information on the Chalet and how things work so that you can make yourself at home quickly.

Within this booklet you will find information on how the day will run if you are getting ready, as well tricks and tips on the chalet itself.

If something is not mentioned here, please do not hesitate to reach out to Justin on 0274 798 107 and we will be only to happy to help.

On Arrival

By booking the chalet for the night, it allows one of the bridal party to get ready in the chalet prior to the ceremony.

If you have decided to utilise the chalet early, couple of tips for your arrival.

Check in is at 2.00pm unless agreed prior with Management.

On arrival, park in the carpark and move all your items to the chalet and settle in for the day.

This is a self serve room so bring drinks and nibbles to enjoy while you are getting ready.

If you want additional seating options (such as bean bags) please come to the bar and request them

A little more about the chalet

The chalet is a cute little building that has a Queen Bed, a leather couch, a kitchenette, inside table and chairs, outside table and chairs as well as a bathroom with a shower.

Please note that the light for the bathroom is on a timer and after 30 minutes the light will turn off automatically.

The light is not broken!

As the chalet is on a gas system, if you do not have hot water, please let Justin know ASAP on 0274798107 and he can come to your rescue.

Don't suffer through a cold shower
